Dear Mr. Murphy,

This email is to inform you that environmental claims have been excluded from the ADR Procedures. Please note that the Debtors reserve the right to establish ADR procedures for environmental claims by a separate motion in the future.

Attached is the ADR Order approved by the Court on February 23, 2010.

Thanks,

Pablo Falabella

Mr. Murphy,

Here is my contact information. Per our conversation, the Debtors are adjourning the ADR motion with respect to environmental claims that constitute prepetition unsecured claims until the hearing on March 10, 2010 at 9:45 a.m. We will be in touch over the next month to resolve the issues.

Best,

Russ

Re: Motors Liquidation Company, et al.,
Case No. 09-50026 (Reg) (the "Debtors")
As to: Claims of Onondaga County, New York

Dear Mr. Murphy:

I am in receipt of your letter dated April 8, 2010. This letter will confirm that the above-referenced Debtors' motion to establish alternative dispute resolution procedures has been adjourned with respect to environmental claims to April 29, 2010 at 9:45 a.m. This letter will also confirm that at that time the Debtors will make clear that the Debtors will not seek to use the ADR procedures under the motion to address environmental claims, although the debtors will reserve their rights to seek such relief in the future upon separate motion. With respect to your inquiries regarding the impact of ongoing discussions with state and federal authorities on environmental claims interposed by Onondaga, I have forwarded your letter to the appropriate parties at Motors Liquidation Company for their consideration.

Please feel free to call me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Smolinsky
